The Affordable Care Act – Deciphering Employer Obligations Presented by John Benoit – President, Employee Benefits Solutions

This program has been submitted for HRCI Recertification Credits

“The U.S. Supreme Court has upheld the federal healthcare reform law known as the Affordable Care ACT (ACA). What does this landmark law mean for employers now and in the near future? John Benoit will help us decipher the employer obligations for 2014 and going forward. Some of the topics covered will include: The ACA’s impact on employers; Important timelines; How employers can prepare for upcoming changes, including: how the law defines employer size, employer coverage requirements, affordability of coverage, and the new penalty treatments; and New benefit options available to employers & employees, including the new health insurance exchange, and how employers can effectively brace for these upcoming changes.
